

Gruyere Gold Project Teleconference Invitation

Gold Road is planning to hold a teleconference today to discuss the funding strategy to develop the world-class Gruyere Gold Project in Western Australia. It is anticipated that an announcement setting out the funding transaction details will be made to the ASX after market close today and prior to the teleconference. The announcement when made to the ASX will lift the current Trading Halt. Should the announcement not be released the teleconference will not go ahead.

The Company invites you to join Chairman Tim Netscher, Managing Director and CEO Ian Murray and key members of the Gruyere Project team on a teleconference to discuss the transaction.
